To: All people in the Diocese of Maine
From: Diocesan Discernment Committee

In order to hear from as many people as possible in the Diocese of Maine, we invite you to take a short survey regarding our quest for the next Bishop of Maine. Your input will be very helpful to the Discernment Committee in articulating to prospective candidates who the people and congregations of the Diocese of Maine are and what type of person they are looking for to be their next Bishop.

If you have any comments beyond the survey form, please send those to discernmentcommittee@episcopalmaine.org.

Thank you for taking the time to do this. We will close the survey on February 28.

In this workshop you'll get the support you need to:

- Find practical ways to deal with pain and fatigue
- Discover better nutrition and exercise choices
- Understand new treatment choices
- Learn better ways to talk with your doctor and family about your health

This free program is brought to you by:

The project described is supported by Grant Number D04828404 from the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), an operating division of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Taking Action for Health meets for 2.5 hours each week for 6 weeks. Every participant will receive the workshop companion book Living a Healthy Life with Chronic Pain, and audio CD, Relaxation for Mind and Body.

Needs volunteers

Rather than rotating church-by-church, month-by-month, through the calendar year, the Bar Harbor Food Pantry is taking a new approach based on feedback from the community at large and church congregations. Very soon, the Pantry will launch a volunteer sign up page, so you can pick days that work for you throughout the entire year. We'll let you know when it's up and running. If you are not computer savvy, please let Muffet or Jim Vallette (home: 244-3106) know that you are interested in volunteering, and the dates you would like, and we'll pass your information along to the Food Pantry. Thanks to the many St. Saviour's parishioners who have volunteered at the Bar Harbor Food Pantry over the years!
